

house and a roll call vote on the motion.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Request for a call of the house. All in favor of the house going under call please vote aye, opposed nay. May I just ask people to check in. I think technically we are under call, Senator Withem. Okay, please check in. Members outside the Chamber, if there are any, please return. Please record your presence. Senator Dierks, please check in. Senator Chambers. Senator Lowell Johnson, please record your presence. Senator Labedz, the house is under call. Senator Nelson, would you please check in. Senator McFarland, please, the house is under call. Senator Schmit. Senators Chambers, Labedz, and McFarland, please return to the Chamber. (Mike off)...and capable of transacting business, I propose to sign and do sign LB 74, LB 413, LB 60, and LB 80.

SENATOR WITHEM: Proceed with the roll call, if you would, please.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Members, return to your seats for a roll call.

SENATOR WITHEM: Could the Clerk repeat the motion that we are voting on, please.

SPEAKER BARRETT: I believe the question before us is the matter of ceasing debate. A roll call has been requested on whether or not debate shall now cease. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Roll call vote commenced.)

SPEAKER BARRETT: Reverse order has been requested.

CLERK: (Roll call vote continued. See page 1841 of the Legislative Journal.) 23 ayes, 19 nays, Mr. President, to cease debate.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Motion fails. The motion before us is to readvance the bill. That is the question before us. Senator Rod Johnson, your light is on. Senator Elmer on deck.

SENATOR R. JOHNSON: Mr. President and members, since the amendment has now been adopted, we are now talking about the advancement of the bill and the bill itself, and I would like to direct my comments specifically to the bill, principally, the section of the bill that deals with the enactment date. If you read the bill in the yellow copy, the Final Reading copy, you
